

Re-conceptualization of Wildlife Conservation

-Toward Resonatable Actions for Conservation-

Session One: Wildlife Conservation in Current Kenya
09:00 – 09:10	Itsuhiro HAZAMA (JSPS)	Opening Remarks.
09:10 – 09:30	Toshio MEGURO (University of Tokyo)	Paradigms of Wildlife Conservation.
09:30 – 10:05	Moses M. OKELLO (The School for Field Studies)	Communities Participation Challenges in Resource Conservation in Kenya Landscapes: Lessons from Amboseli, Kenya.
10:05 – 10:40	Mordecai O. OGADA (Kenya Wildlife Trust)	Livestock Depredation: The Changing Face of an Old Problem.
10:40 – 11:15	Charles MUSYOKI (Kenya Wildlife Service)	Crop Raiding by Elephants in Mahiga B Village, Kenya
11:15 – 11:50	Toshio MEGURO	A Change of Local Subsistence Brought by Wildlife Benefit: From the Case of Kimana Sanctuary in Southern Kenya.
11:50 – 12:10		Discussion.
12:10 – 13:00		Lunch Break.
Session Two: Various Perspectives of Wildlife Conservation
13:00 – 13:35	Yumi YAMANE (Kyoto University)	The Role of Captive Wildlife Facilities in Wildlife Conservation and Conservation Education
13:35 – 14:10	Akito YASUDA (Kyoto University)	The Significance of Sport Hunting in Conservation Policy and the Impact on the Livelihood of Local People: A Case Study of Bénoué National Park, Cameroon.
14:10 – 14:45	Nobuko NISHIZAKI (Fukushima University)	Understanding Villagers' Livelihoods and Their Importance in Community-based Wildlife Management: A Case Study of Ethiopia.
14:45 – 15:20	Yukino IWAI (Waseda University)	Transformation of Community's Resistance from "Weapons of the Weak" to the Land Right Movement in the Serengeti National Park, Tanzania.
15:20 – 15:40		Discussion.
15:40 – 16:00		Short Break
Session Three: General Discussion
16:00 – 16:20	Itsuhiro HAZAMA David WESTERN (African Conservation Fund)	Comments by Commentators.
16:20 – 17:20		General Discussion.
17:20 – 17:30	Itsuhiro HAZAMA	End Remarks.